<http://www.lexisnexis.com/risk/>

LexisNexis is a leading global information solutions provider that delivers legal, news, public records, and business information to help mitigate risk and facilitate critical decision making. We serve the Credit and Financial Services, Collections, Direct Marketing, Banking and the Healthcare markets.

The Internship Position

We offer a 10 week paid internship working in South Florida where you will gain valuable experience working directly with customers and prospects. You would be consulting with clients to review and improve their processing workflows by leveraging LexisNexis solutions. Specifically addressing risk mitigation, regulatory compliance, customer experience and cost efficiencies. Our interns go through an intense new hire training program that will help them establish a workable base knowledge from which to start.

We view our intern program as a valuable recruiting resource. Individuals participating in this program have the opportunity to demonstrate their sales production abilities and desire to succeed. The intern can put themselves in a position to compete for a professional sales opportunity at the conclusion their internship.

Candidate Qualifications

Candidate should be a Business/Marketing/Sales major student in good standing (juniors, seniors and recent graduates preferred). Eligible student must also have excellent verbal and written communication skills, attention to detail and sound follow-up habits. This individual would be comfortable in a fast paced environment with the ability to multi-task, communicating telephonically, while using online demonstration technologies and advanced Customer Relationship Management platforms.
